The company has successfully updated the module for online orders - now with a choice of courier and payment method. Customers have the opportunity to place orders at any time, using as a basis the data from the two calculators - for production and installation.